WHY SHOULD I ATTEND NABI?

NABI Participants:

• Develop time management & organizational skills

• Strengthen communication & interpersonal skills

• Attend corporate, cultural, and leadership development workshops

• Cultivate a deeper appreciation and understanding of diversity and its importance

• Foster networks with business leaders and other professionals

• Exposure to various careers and opportunities in business

• Form lifelong friendships with other Native youth, MSU students, & MSU support staff

• Most importantly—learn how to WORK HARD & PLAY HARD!

Team GM w/General Motors Representatives
The Native American Business Institute (NABI) is a weeklong pre-college summer program held on the campus of Michigan State University for Native American high school students that will be in the 9th, 10th, 11th, or 12th grade during the 2019-2020 school year, interested in learning useful and transferable professional skills, about various careers in business, and about college in general. This program is FREE to all selected participants! Participants work with MSU admissions officers, college counselors, tribal community leaders, and corporate representatives in a seven-day “business boot-camp” that prepares students for the college application process and exposes them to numerous academic and professional opportunities.
