Explanation

Other Programs - To broaden the organization's outreach and tap into our community of educators' intellect, NIEA hosted twelve regional world café sessions. Information gathered during these sessions guided the organization's strategic plan development and future goals over the next 5-10 years. The power of conversation among our tribal leaders, education stakeholders, families, and students opened opportunities for innovative thought and discovering new processes. NIEA equips members with the knowledge and tools needed to support Native students. NIEA offers professional development opportunities, policy and advocacy assistance, educational resources, and a platform to share ideas and best practices in Native education to all of its members. NIEA hosts an annual legislative summit offering opportunities for Native education advocates to learn from national experts, education advocates, meet congressional staff, and collaborate with colleagues about critical issues affective Native education programs.
